Debit Card Policy

1. Purpose

To formulate guidelines for issuance of Debit Card to Savings Bank and Current Account holders.

This policy will provide guidelines for issuance of Debit Card / Co-Branded Debit Card, including types of Debit Card, customer eligibility, usage, limits, fees/charges, Terms and Conditions (T&C), security aspects and customer grievance handling mechanism.

This policy will be governed by applicable RBI guidelines and will be subject to changes to ensure conformity with applicable RBI guidelines.

2. Understanding a Debit Card

A Debit Card is a physical and/or virtual payment instrument that provides the cardholder electronic access to his / her bank account (s).

A Debit Card has the following components on the card:

Card Number: This is a 16-digit number linked to the customer account.

Name of Person: This is applicable only for personalised cards. This indicates the person authorized to use the card.

Validity Date: Indicates the validity period of the card. The card is valid till the last day of the expiry month. It is in MM/YY format.

Card Verification Value (CVV) / CVV2: This is a 3-digit number printed on the back of the card. This is used as a validation factor for online (Card Not Present) transactions.

3. Types and issuance of Debit Card:

All DCB Bank Debit Cards in physical form will be EMV-chip based cards.

EMV Card: EMV stands for Europay, MasterCard and Visa. EMV is a global standard for Credit and Debit cards based on chip card technology. At the time of transaction, the chip on the card is read for card details.

DCB Bank will issue only EMV cards in line with RBI circular RBI/2015-16/163 DPSS.CO.PD.No.448/02.14.003/2015-16 on Security and Risk Mitigation Measures for card Present and Electronic Payment Transactions – Issuance of EMV Chip and PIN cards dated August 27, 2015.

DCB Bank may issue VISA, Rupay, MasterCard (or any other network provider) enabled personalised or non-personalised Debit Cards on its different Savings / Current accounts products in physical and /or virtual form.

DCB Bank Limited

Registered Office Address: 601 & 602, Peninsula Business Park, Tower 'A', 6th floor,
Senapati Bapat Marg, Lower Parel, Mumbai - 400 013

The Bank may issue different variants of cards, like Classic, Platinum, etc. (or any other new variant) basis customer / business requirements.

EMV Card with Dual Interface (DI): EMV Chip Card with additional feature of contactless transaction up to the limit approved by RBI may be issued by DCB Bank.

A Debit Card can be requested by the customer at the time of account opening or at a later stage till the bank account is active. Limits on the card will be determined by factors like product (scheme), type of card, etc. Personal Identification Number (PIN) of the card, which is required to operate the card, will be sent separately by physical mailers as a measure of safety. The Bank may also decide to stop physical mailers in order to avoid the same falling in wrong hand and alternatively provide customers with the facility to call from their registered mobile number and reset or generate a new PIN automatically. The Bank also provides other means of generating PIN through Mobile Banking, Internet Banking and website.

4. Channel wise Card Control through Call Center and other Alternate Channels:

Customers can control the usage of their card for ATM, POS (contact or contactless) and/or E-commerce transactions (domestic or international) in the following manner:

All other channels are blocked by default. These channels can be enabled/ disabled by the customer through Mobile Banking, IVR or Call Center depending upon card type.

5. Co-branding Arrangement

As permitted under regulations, DCB Bank may issue co-branded Debit Cards based on business requirements. The co-branding arrangement will be done after assessing the various risks associated with such an arrangement including reputational risk and mitigation measures.

The Bank will also carry out due diligence of the entity with which it intends to enter into a tie-up for issuance of such cards in order to protect against any reputational risk. In cases where applicable, the Bank will ensure that the entity has obtained necessary approvals from its regulator for entering into the co-branding agreement.

The role of the co-branding entity under the tie-up will be limited to marketing/distribution of the cards and/ or providing access to the cardholder (customer) for the goods/services it offers.

6. Customer Eligibility

DCB Bank Limited

Registered Office Address: 601 & 602, Peninsula Business Park, Tower 'A', 6th floor,
Senapati Bapat Marg, Lower Parel, Mumbai - 400 013

- b) The terms shall specify the basis of any charges, but not necessarily the amount of charges at any point in time and shall specify the period within which the cardholder's account would be normally debited.
- c) The terms and conditions for issuance and usage of Debit Cards shall be mentioned in clear and simple language (preferably in English, Hindi and the local language) comprehensible to the cardholder.
- d) The terms shall put the cardholder under an obligation to take all appropriate steps to keep the card safe along with the means (such as PIN or OTP) which enable it for use.
- e) The terms shall put the cardholder under an obligation not to record the PIN or OTP, in any form that would be intelligible or otherwise accessible to third party if access is gained to such a record, either honestly or dishonestly.
- f) The terms shall put the cardholder under an obligation to notify the Bank immediately after becoming aware:
 - Of the loss or theft or copying of the card or the means which enable it to be used
 - Of any unauthorised transaction on the card
 - Of any error or other irregularity in the maintaining of the card account by the Bank.
- g) The terms shall specify the contact point to which such notification can be made. These notifications can be made at any time of the day or night.
- h) The terms shall specify that the Bank shall exercise care when issuing PINs or OTP and shall not disclose the cardholder's PIN or OTP, except to the cardholder.
- i) The terms shall specify that the Bank shall be responsible for direct losses incurred by a cardholder due to a system malfunction directly within the Bank's control. However, the Bank shall not be held liable for any loss caused by a technical breakdown of the payment system if the breakdown of the system was recognisable by the cardholder by a message on the display of the device or otherwise known.
- j) The terms, including charges, fees and interest rates, may be altered by the Bank at its own discretion. 30 days' notice of the change(s) will be given to cardholders to enable them to withdraw their card if they so decide. After the notice period of 30 days, cardholder would be deemed to have accepted the terms if they had not withdrawn the card within the specified period (irrespective of whether they had transacted during the specified period). The change in terms will be notified to the cardholder through available communication channels.
